DEMOCRATIC DEMAGOGY.

A PERFECT DELUGE OF DOWN-RIGHT NO-SUCH-THINGS.

The Brookville Barbecue By Day, and the Mayville Melange of Misrepresentations at Night.

Yesterday was a great day at Brookville.

The pretty little village was overrun with Democrats, who had been drawn there by posters announcing that a whole caravan of speakers would be on hand.

Indeed, the Cincinnati Post of last evening said that Governor John Young Brown, ex-Governor McCrary, Hon. Ben E. Roe, Senator William Lindsay, Senator Jo C. S. Blackburn, R. H. Elliott, T. H. Paynter, Cassius M. Clay and W. C. P. Breckinridge were actually present and spoke, when the truth was that only three of those named were there—Messrs. Blackburn, Clay and Paynter, each of whom, with Hon. P. W. Hardin, spoke their little speeches.

Mr. Clay, who is Mr. Hardin's competitor for gubernatorial honors, was not expected. So Hardin just fairly "turned himself loose" in the firmament of false rhetoric, and as he had scraped the sky of its most brilliant stars and was sling them with both hands over his spell-bound auditors, Mr. Clay arrived. His presence caused the immediate collapse of the Hon. P. W. Wat's star-scattering performance, and thereforeward he was like a bladder that had been successfully tramped on.

As near as can be learned about 2,000 people attended, all of whom were handsomely entertained by the Brookvillians.

President Hayes has issued an order closing the sugar trust. The trust has made an effort to reduce the price of sugar by one-half of the refrigerated under the control of the trust. The other half will be shut down next week. This action is taken because of the large quantity of refined sugar on hand.

HOMESICKERS' EXCURSIONS.

On September 25th and October 9th the C. & O. will set excursion tickets to points in thirty states and territories at one fare, plus $2, for the round trip. Tickets good 30 days.

WEEKLY REPORT.

The Condition of Kentucky's Crops Up to Tuesday.

The average temperature of the week was very near the normal for the season. Scattered showers fell during the early part of the week, but they have been heaviest and most frequent in the Eastern and Northern sections of the state. These conditions were generally beneficial to all crops still in the fields and were highly favorable to the progress of farm work. Much fall plowing has been done and the sowing of wheat has commenced with indications that a large acreage will be planted.

Great progress was made during the week in the cutting of tobacco, and the early planted portion of the crop is nearly all housed in good condition. The backward weather early in the season caused many fields to be set very late and it is probable that they will be exposed to damage from frost before maturing.

Nearly all reports agree as to the fair quality of the crop, but the acreage appears to be less than that of last year.

Corn is maturing very rapidly and in many sections cutting has commenced. The work will be under full headway during the coming week. The crop is very heavy in the river bottoms, but is rather light in the upland districts.

Fall pastures are reported to be generally fine and in consequence live stock is in excellent condition.

Late potatoes promise a good yield.

The weather prospects for Kentucky for the next 48 hours are for generally fair with slowly rising temperature after Wednesday morning. Light frosts in exposed places are indicated for Wednesday morning.

NINTH DISTRICT REPUB.

Hon. Samuel J. Pugh Entertains Them in Harrison County.

Monday was the most eventful day in the history of the Republican party in the old rock-ribbed county of Harrison, and Republicans are jubilant, while Democrats are correspondingly depressed.

Hon. Samuel J. Pugh, Republican candidate for Congress, was bailed to speak there, and when it was known by the Democratic leaders that he would speak, they agreed to give him Hon. J. K. Hart, Democratic nominee, all the time he might want; but, to their utter amazement, the Democrats did not want Mr. Hart to speak, but proposed they should divide the time with Senator Lindsay.

Thus the Republicans very properly refused to do. The Democrats then advertised that Senator Lindsay would speak at 11 o'clock, the Republicans having had the courthouse engaged for 2 p.m.

When the hour arrived for the Democratic speaker, Senator Lindsay had not materialized and Judge J. Q. Ward of Paris was prevailed upon to undertake the hopeless task of jollying up a very small house of very blue Democrats.

Long before the hour for Mr. Pugh to speak the house was packed, and Mr. Pugh spoke for an hour and a half to a most appreciative audience, many of whom were Democrats, who are unable to understand how they are to be benefited by the new Tariff Law, which taxes their sugar and places their wool on the free list. It was a banner day for Republicans, and unless all signs fail Samuel J. Pugh will occupy the seat that Tom Payne still persists in filling, to the chagrin of a few aspiring Democrats.

The Citizens Company on Commerce street, Fifth Ward, have received a fresh supply of Pennsylvania Coal equal to the Peacock Coal, and will sell delivered for cash, as cheap as any in the market. All orders promptly filled.

Are Good Enough for THE LEDGER!

COLONEL INGERSOLL's recent defense of suicide must be appropriate and soothing reading to the Tariff-tinkering Democrats.

One great need of Maysville is a home mutual insurance company, which would keep at home the $35,000 or $40,000 which is now sent abroad every year for premiums on insurance.

The present New York delegation in Congress stands 20 Democrats and 14 Republicans in the House, with both Senators Democratic. But just wait until the November frost lights on the Democratic persimmon patch.

In his recent speech at Indianapolis ex-President HARRISON said: "We are told that the rich are getting richer and the poor poorer, and so to cure that imaginary ill our political opponents have brought in a time when everybody is getting poorer."

It is said now that Queen LIL, the dusky damsel who has lost her throne in Hawaii, is going to sue UNCLE SAM for $200,000 for breach of promise. GROVER promised to give her throne back to her. Don't sue, LIL; even UNCLE SAM's strong box can't stand it in these good Democratic times.

TREASURE HALE thinks that by the last of November Kentucky will resume payment. Kentucky is Democratic, we believe; and we believe she is the only state in the Union that has suspended payment. "Virtue is its own reward"—"E Pluribus Unum"—"I'm-sic-sed-for-McGinnis"—or words to that effect.

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON has a way of compressing great chunks of wisdom into a very small space. One of his recent utterances is—"We are told that under the McKinley Bill the price of wool went down, and that since it has been made free it is going up; that sugar on the free list was higher than sugar with a 40 per cent duty. And all this notwithstanding the old Democratic doctrine, that duty was always added to the cost of the domestic article."

"Pugh falls flat as a Congressional quantity even among Republican newspapers. THE MARYSVILLE PUBLIC LEDGER is not pawing the air in the interest of PUGH, and remarked the other day that when the race is ended the question will be asked: 'Was PUGH running for Congress?'—Dover News.

You not only misquote, but in the language of Br'er MARSH, you fall to "catch on." The "connipos" of our remark, "Did PUGH run?" finds its counterpart in the query, "Did MORGAN run?" which was a conundrum, I suppose, to the Democrats into such a stage fright a few years ago that they have not yet been able to answer it.

SOME Democrats appear to be much disgusted because "Professor" HILL-BILLY WILSON of West Virginia, author of the Hill Wilson Tariff Bill, accepted an invitation to eat pudding and drink "alf" an "alf" with the British Board of Free-trade. And then there was present one ISADOR STRAUSS, a gentleman from Jerusalem, whose home is in New York and whose business is that of importing British goods into the American market to drive out the goods made in America. And then it is said that Mr. STRAUSS paid Mr. WILSON's passage to London and is paying all the expense of his trip. But of such is the modern Democratic Tariff Reform Free-trader.

THE foreign insurance companies doing business in Lexington have recently advanced the rates in that city about 50 per cent. Mayor DUNCAN proposes a remedy if these rates are persisted in. He recommends that a sufficient tax be imposed on the insurance companies to pay the entire cost of the Fire Department, which was $22,530 in 1893. The suggestion is a good one, and THE LEDGER urges our City Council to take the matter under consideration here. The fire losses in Maysville for ten years past will hardly equal the premiums paid in any single year. The "Insurance Trust" is the boss robber of the age.

EXAMINATION of the new Democratic Tariff Law at the Treasury Department discloses the fact that it contains no provisions whatever for a duty upon imported fruits, preserved in brandy or other spirits. The omission was not discovered until an application was received from a large importer of such goods for information as their classification under the present Tariff Law. Under the McKinley Law, "fruits preserved in spirits" were subject to a duty of 35 per cent ad valorem. The question of the classification of these goods under present conditions has not yet been determined. It is probable, however, that the Department will decide that the best way out of the dilemma is to assess duty upon the spirits and the fruits separately, according to the rate provided for each in the Tariff Act. The preserving of fruit in this manner is an extensive industry, and the importation of such fruits, especially brandied peaches, is very heavy. In case the Department decides to assess duty on the spirits as well as on the fruits, the duty will be higher than it was under the old law.

Buy American Goods Only!

If every patriotic American will purchase American goods for his consumption he will lessen the disastrous effects of the Free-Trade Goods Tariff Bill. THE LEDGER invites all to join in such a movement, and to sign the following pledge:

I hereby pledge myself to buy American goods only, whether of the farm, mine or factory, and to use my influence to have others do the same.

SENATOR HILL.

The Saratoga Convention Nominated Him for Governor.

He Will Probably Not Refuse, as the Demand Was Emphatic.

Daniel N. Lockwood Nominated for Lieutenant Governor, and Wm. J. Gaynor for Associate Justice of the Court of Appeals—The Platform.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 27.—David HILL will lead the democratic forces of the empire state this fall. The convention, which started in to carry out the wishes of the party leaders, broke away from the platform and adopted a code of the wildest excitement, notwithstanding its chairman in spite of himself. The ticket named is as follows:

For Governor—David H. BILL.

For Lieutenant-Governor—Daniel N.

For associate judge of the court of appeals—Wm. J. Gaynor.

Senator Hill did not accept, but as he did not decline the democracy has as its standard-bearer a man who has given the state the best service.

He refused a moment, as a look, a bit sober, flitted across his face, and replied:

"I have nothing to say. I have left politics behind." And with this he dismissed the subject.

Others soon got some expression of opinion from the president later Wednesday night, but it was admitted by all who went to Gray Gables on that mission that nothing further than that statement was secured.

It was believed he had lost all interest, or not in rapport to a degree with what is transpiring in the political world, it was afterwards explained, but that he has isolated himself so completely that he is not in touch with current events, only infrequently reading a newspaper and not attempting to keep well posted.

DOUBLE LIFE.

J. H. CAVEN, the Railway Man of Cleveland, Found Murdered, Discovered to Have Lived Much.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 27.—Investigation has developed the fact that J. H. Caven, the general agent of the Valley railway, who was murdered Tuesday, led a dual life. His family and friends believed that he was a man of high moral and great surprise was taken at the finding of his mutilated body in one of the most questionable parts of the city.

The developments show that Caven was by no means a stranger to the underworld, and that the police are looking for persons having been found who have seen him there frequently. He is known now to have had a mistress several months ago on a shady street not far from where his body was found. The police are looking for her. There is no doubt that there was a woman in the case, and the police are working on the theory that Caven was murdered by a jealous husband or lover. The body of the murdered man was taken to Pittsburgh for burial Wednesday in a special car.

Senator Hill spoke as follows on being serenaded here Wednesday evening:

Fellow Democrats and Gentlemen—For this generous reception and the compliment of having a speaker at a meeting like this, I thank you. I am deeply grateful.

This demonstration is a part of the unexpected events of a day which to me has been most interesting.

The action of the democratic convention, which is the occasion of this assemblage and the adoption of the platform, is a fulfillment of the responsibilities and obligations of which I can not speak to-night, unwilling as I am to reveal the secret of my protest, which has sought to confront me.

I am deeply touched by the unusual manifestations of the people here, and I am gratified to find that the action of the convention, and to-night I can only express in feelings language and thoughts which I have never uttered toward the democracy of New York. At some future time I hope to express my views at the national convention, and in the course of my important campaign. I renew my thanks for this demonstration and bid you good night.

Judge Combs was standing in his yard talking to friends when the shot was fired. The bullet struck him in the heart. Judge Combs was 65 years old. He had been generally liked. Two attempts were made to assassinate Judge Combs last year, but they were unsuccessful.

It is probable that this murder will start the feed afresh. Perry County is remote from railroads and telegraph lines. The French-Eversole feed from the first to last has cost many lives.

French-EverSOLE FEED.

Another Victim in Case of Judge J. C. Combs, Who is Assassinated.

PINEVILLE, Ky., Sept. 27.—The famous French-Eversole feed has been reviewed. Letters received here Wednesday morning announced that Judge J. C. Combs, the man-in-the-street of Allentown, was shot down and killed at his home at Hazard, Perry county, on last Sunday morning at 7 o'clock. The assassin was hiding in a patch of corn across the village road from the judge's house.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 26.—Auditor of State has completed tabular statements showing the revenues derived in 1894 from the Dow liquor tax. There are 9,818 saloons in the state, and the revenue from them is $1,000,000. Hamilton county is credited with 1,703 saloons, yielding $75,386.30 revenue. Another table shows that there are in this state 1,036 dead and dumb persons, 1,300 blind, 1,334 epileptics, 229 epileptic infants, 773 insane, 1,000 deaf, 1,121 Hamilton county has 132 deaf and dumb persons, 91 blind, 93 epileptic, 16 epileptic infants, 80 insane and 68 idiots.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 27.—The democratic state executive committee met at the Hotel Washington afternoon and selected Henry Aphorist of Ashtabula, vice chairman; Col. W. A. Taylor, secretary, and John A. Barber, of Columbus, treasurer. The plan of campaign was not discussed, the business being of a purely routine character.

She Played Her Part.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27.—Mrs. Anna Palmer, aged 25, died Wednesday from burns received by the explosion of a gasoline stove. Mrs. Palmer's dress caught fire from the flames, which threatened the crib in which her baby lay. She saved the child's life at the sacrifice of her own.

To Secure Caldwell.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 27.—Gov. McKinley Wednesday issued a proclamation for the election of a congressman in the Second district to succeed Hon. John A. Caldwell. The special election is to be held at the same time that the regular November election is to be held.

Woman Fatally Burned.

WILD WINDS.

West India Hurricane Reaches the Southern Coast.

Indications That the Damage to Property Will Be Heavy.

Typee Island Probably Buried by Avalanche From the Recent Gale. The Rock Creek is Back and the Loss May Be Entire.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Sept. 27.—The West India hurricane raged here yesterday, and there was no greater intensity than at the memorable storm of August 27, 1893. The wind at 6 o'clock Wednesday night was blowing at from fifty to seventy miles an hour, and has not yet abated. The indications are now that the damage to property will be heavy, but the loss of life will be small, ample warning having been given to the sea islanders. It is felt, though, that many Negroes will be drowned, as the Atlantic in the vicinity of Beaufort, Port Royal, and elsewhere on the Carolina coast.

Typee Island is probably buried under an avalanche from the ocean. The water there, which it should have been low tide, was higher than at the highest tide recorded. A steady gale of sixty-six miles an hour, with the velocity of the gusts ranging as high as seven-tenths of a mile per second, was sweeping the water over the island.

Two British steamships were lying off Typee, exposed to the full fury of the storm. Observer Evans, at the Martello tower, telegraphed to the board of trade that the gale was worse than at the time of last great storm. The Martello tower will be regarded as safe, and those on the island will have to take refuge there in the light of the gales. Unless there is a change in the direction of the wind, Typee seems to be doomed.

Telephone communication with the island ceased early Wednesday afternoon, and as the storm was increasing rapidly over all the worst is feared.

Many of the residents of Montgomery, Isle of Hope, Thunder Bolt, and other places where the storm's force is apt to be felt more than in the city, brought their families in Wednesday evening.

Rice planters say that the greater part of the crop had been cut and stacked, and that the outlook is bad. The rice promises to be very heavy, if not quite so grainy. "I am very much afraid the rice industry is doomed. We could not stand another such loss as that last year."

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The storm which has swept the coast of the South Carolinian coast has delayed shipping bound to and from all ports south of Florida. The Cinclad Linda, of the Spanish line, which left New York on Thursday last, had not arrived at Havana when she reached the Bahama Islands two days behind her usual time. The Morgan line steamer Eldorado, which sailed from New Orleans on Thursday last, is two days overdue.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 27.—The chief damage to the city is the inundation of the fearful flood of salt water, which has, without doubt, extended to the rice fields. It is not improbable that the rice crop will be almost entirely destroyed. The cotton crop, which has already harvested, The cotton fields along the coast, which are white with opening balls, are also probably, nearly destroyed.

Explorers' Wellman's Return.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Among the passengers on board the steamer of the North German Lloyd line, which arrived from Bremen and Southampton Wednesday night, are the following members of the arctic expedition which left New York last March, bound for the north pole. Dr. Edward N. (Navy) Wellman, Prof. E. F. French, of the United States coast and geodetic survey, astronomical observer of the party, Dr. Thomas B. Mohon, medical officer, and Charles C. Dodge, photographer, all of the expedition. Mr. French, who was in charge of the expedition, says that they have returned home to make plans for another expedition next year.

FOREIGN MAILED.

The Postmaster General Has a Conflicting Order in His Office.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The post office department will have an interesting question to determine when the time arrives for complying with the law and beginning of the contract with the mail contractors to steamers for carrying foreign mails.

At present the American line sails only the New York and Paris as mail-carrying ships. Within a year the S. S. Lord Milner, of Paul will be added to the fleet and a mail-carrying vessel of this line will leave New York for England every week. Now the mails are assigned to the vessels which will sail on the date of the arrival of the mail.

The superintendent of foreign mails in Washington averages the time by different vessels on the three last trips and to the vessels which performs the speediest delivery the carrying of the mail. The speediest delivery is about one-third of a minute in time, or a difference of three minutes in the time has given a vessel the mail in preference to another vessel sailing at the same time. The New York and Paris get $100 per pound for carrying the mail, while the mail-carrying vessel, forty-four cents per pound, for second class matter, such as newspapers, the American liners get eight cents a pound and foreign ships one cent half cents. When new contracts come into effect the American line will get four dollars per mile for carrying the mails. It will not make any difference as to the amount care can be taken, it will not be determined, and it will be a question for the department to decide, whether all mails destined for England shall be held for the American liners or will be sent on foreign ships with a mail-carrying vessel.

If a ship of the American line was not to leave until the last of the week, while before its departure one or more speedy ships of foreign lines went out, there will be great demand for the mails carried by them.

The crew of the Ohio were landed here, and the two members of the crew of the Ironton were taken to the Soo. The wind was blowing a gale from the west, and the Ironton was driven ashore. Just before the collision the Ironton parted her tow line, and it is thought that the accident threw her out of course and caused the collision. The Ohio was loaded with flour and feed from Duluth, and was bound for the Soo.

A Freight Train Demolishes Itself and Several Believed to be Killed.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Sept. 27.—At 1:30 Tuesday morning a train of East and Western freight cars, eastbound, broke in two on a grade near Indianapolis. The detached portion rushed back into the city. The Big Four passenger train from Chicago stood in the Union depot, and was stopped. Brightly seeing the danger, threw a switch, saving a score of lives by turning the train into a side track. The detached cars, however, crashed into the Big Four, derailing it, and forcing through South street, and into Cleveland Marquette. The crew and officers of the Ohio refused to talk about the collision. The Ohio is owned by Eliphantes of Chicago; was built in 1875, is 200 feet long, has a speed of 15 knots, and rates $3,000 per month, and $35,000. The Ironton is owned by Cleveland vesselmen. She was built in Buffalo in 1873, rates $2,000, and was valued at $18,000.

W. H. Hook is a candidate on the Republican ticket for the office of "Squire". Mr. H. is a Republican from "way back", having been a member of that party. He is one of our best citizens, industrious, upright, in every particular, and a man possessed of fine judgment. Messrs. T. O. Brooks and R. B. Cross attended meeting at Sand Hill Church Saturday and Sunday night, but we are sorry to say that Brooks, who met most of his place of abode, struck a barbed wire and tore his best Sunday pants. He sort of believes his best girl is the cause of it. She had him sort 'umfuzzed'.

The annual reunion of the Seventeenth Ohio Regiment will be held at Aberdeen on Thursday and Friday, October 19th and 20th.

The property-holders of Lexington are greatly interested over the new rating of the Board of Underwriters for Lexington for that city. The new rating is an increase over the old rate of from 40 to 75 per cent. There is no good reason for this increase. Committees of property-holders have waited on the insurance men without getting any satisfaction, so the property-holders met and unanimously passed a resolution denouncing the advance in rates.

"Don't Tobacco Spit or Smoke Your Lips Away."

THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN

WEEKLY PUBLIC LEDGER.

Did U?

Did you ever think that relatives or friends who have moved to distant places—gone West, perhaps, to grow up with the country—are always glad to hear from their "Old Kentucky Home?" And did it ever occur to you that a single copy of THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN—the weekly edition of THE PUBLIC LEDGER—contains more home news than you could embrace in a hundred ordinary letters? And did it ever strike you that you can send the paper to your relatives and friends for a whole year at less cost than you can write a letter every week? Besides, don't you think a year's subscription to THE REPUBLICAN would be a present highly appreciated by those at a distance? Suppose you try it and hear what they have to say on the subject.
